Northern Health Services Network

WHO WE ARE

- A team of 6 healthcare professionals, including registered nurses, who work with patients and their families from Northwest Territories (NWT), Nunavut (NU) and Yukon (YT) while they are in Edmonton for health care treatment.
- All nurses have worked in Health Centres in the Territories.

WHY WE ARE HERE

- To provide discharge planning, and as a liaison for healthcare professionals in order to improve the ongoing patient care and follow-up.
- As a contact for Territorial patients and their families who are accessing medical treatment and services in Edmonton.

WHERE TO FIND NHSN AT THE ROYAL ALEXANDRA HOSPITAL

- Main entrance is on Kingsway Avenue. The Information Desk can help you find your way. NHSN is in room 570 on the 5th floor of the Community Services Centre. It's the building next to the Women's Centre.

HOW WE CAN HELP

- NHSN will assist with hospital discharge planning, and help to arrange any equipment and supplies as necessary.
- Try to support you when you meet with doctors, nurses and other medical team members.
- With your permission, we will provide your family doctor and/or Community Health Centre with your medical information and hospital stay updates, as appropriate.
- Connect you with LARGA Ltd, if you are eligible to stay there or if they are booking your flight home.
- Help you to connect with the Indigenous Cultural helpers at your request.

HOW TO CONTACT US

When you are admitted to the hospital, you may ask a nurse to contact us.

If you want to talk to us before you come to the hospital, call us or have someone call for you.
